Grallspice
Meeting on 23 July 1952

Contact Report No. 16.

1. This meeting took place in the operational apartment at 1400 hours as scheduled at the previous meeting.

Operational Matters.

2. Grallspice's Cover.

a. [] informed Grallspice that the U. S. Army Property Disposal officer in Vienna was one Lt. Davis who had his office in the OM clothing store located on Mariahilferstrasse.

b. Grallspice said that he would go to the OM clothing store and talk with Lt. Davis in order to determine the possibilities existing on behalf of LINDEX. On the basis of his first talk with Lt. Davis, Grallspice felt that he could write a letter to LINDEX indicating that he was pursuing his cover job in Vienna.

c. Grallspice gave [] the addresses of three homes which were for rent at reasonable prices and suggested that [] might be interested in obtaining them for operational apartments. He had obtained the addresses as the result of his efforts to find an apartment for himself.

Operational Elements.

4. Grallspice Cover.

a. Grallspice reported that he had not as yet been forced by circumstances to relate the cover story that he and [] had worked out together. He said that he was very thankful for this because he had discovered that the tailor of his landlady had been born in Riga and naturally speaks Latvian. Grallspice had been introduced to this tailor and had immediately altered his cover story to the extent that he claimed
